

Please let the free enterprise system continue to work and do not stop XM radio from evolving into the high tech future. If we start to control new ideas and new services, we will fall behind the rest of the world in ideas and leadership.
Please join with me and give this new media a chance before we kill it!

Sincerely,

Dwight Strickland